RFP TITLE: OUTREACH TO INTERNATIONAL BANKS ON U.S. SOY SUSTAINABILITY

RFP CONTACT:

Name: Lizette Vargas

Email: lvargas@ussec.org

PROPOSAL DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 6, 2023

INTRODUCTION:

Through a global network of international offices and strong support in the U.S., the United States Soybean Export Council (USSEC) helps build a preference for U.S. soybeans and soybean products, advocate for the use of U.S. Soy in feed, aquaculture and human consumption, promote the benefits of soy use through education and connect industry leaders through a robust membership program.

Sustainability is an important differentiator for U.S. Soy. U.S. soybean farmers are leaders in environmentally sustainable production, the U.S. Soy Sustainability Assurance Protocol (SSAP) is recognized in key export markets, and use of SSAP certificates and the Sustainable U.S. Soy logo have been increasing.

PURPOSE OF RFP:

USSEC seeks a contractor to conduct outreach to international banks and other financial institutions who have or are developing soy sourcing policies. The contractor will serve as a representative of U.S. Soy to promote understanding of U.S. Soy sustainability and the U.S. Soy Sustainability Assurance Protocol (SSAP) within the banking/finance sector. The primary focus will be on engagement with financial institutions that are signatories to the United Nations Environment Program Finance Initiative (UNEP FI) Principles for Responsible Banking. The contractor should have an understanding of financial institutions' commitments under the UNEP FI Principles for Responsible Banking, experience communicating with financial institutions about agricultural sustainability issues, and familiarity with the SSAP.

BACKGROUND & PURPOSE OF PROJECT:

The UNEP FI Principles for Responsible Banking serve as a framework for financial institutions to develop strategies and business practices that align with the Sustainable Development Goals, the Paris Climate Agreement, and relevant regional or national initiatives. Since it began in 2019, more than 300 financial institutions around the world have joined the program. As a part of their commitments under the Principles for Responsible Banking, financial institutions conduct an environmental impact analysis of their lending and investment portfolios, develop targets and identify actions to address the most significant impacts, and regularly report on progress. As a part of this process, financial institutions active in the food and agriculture sector are developing sustainable sourcing policies for agricultural commodities. USSEC is aware of at least 21 financial institutions that either currently have or are in the process of developing soy sourcing policies. These policies have the potential to impact international customers' ability to access loan or investment financing for their businesses. Current U.S. Soy sustainability initiatives and the SSAP are highly complementary to the Sustainable Development Goals and the Paris Climate Agreement, and there is a need to increase awareness of this within the banking and financial sector. The contractor will engage with financial institutions to improve their understanding of how U.S. Soy sustainability and the SSAP align with their soy sourcing policies and contribute to their sustainability targets.

TARGET AUDIENCE: International financial institutions that are signatories to the UNEP FI Principles for Responsible Banking with soy sourcing policies that are active or in development. The majority of the target financial institutions are based in the U.S. or Europe.

SCOPE (SERVICES) OF WORK:

- Work with USSEC to develop a list of financial institutions and individual contacts for outreach. USSEC has a preliminary list of financial institutions that currently have or are in the process of developing soy sourcing policies. The contractor will assist with further developing the list; this will include identifying the appropriate contact people within the institutions. The primary focus will be on financial institutions that are signatories to the UNEP FI Principles for Responsible Banking and that serve international customers of U.S. Soy.
- Arrange and conduct meetings (virtual or in-person) with relevant institutions to discuss U.S. Soy sustainability, the SSAP, and their alignment with the financial institutions' soy sourcing policies. USSEC already has informational materials and PowerPoint presentations for the contractor to use during the meetings.
- Produce reports summarizing the meetings including participant contact information, outcomes, and recommended next steps.
 - Touch base with USSEC (email or call) after key meetings with any time sensitive information or urgent follow up action items.
 - Submit monthly summary reports.
 - Submit a final report summarizing all meetings held during the contract period.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION AND BACKGROUND

BUILDING A PREFERENCE FOR U.S. SOY

USSEC's strategy can be found here: <http://ussec.org/about-ussec/vision-mission/>

USB's Long Range Strategic Plan can be found here: <http://unitedsoybean.org/about-usb/strategic-planning/>

We are a dynamic partnership of key stakeholders representing soybean producers, commodity shippers, merchandisers, allied agribusiness and agricultural organizations.

Through a global network of international offices and strong support in the U.S., we help build a preference for U.S. soybeans and soybean products, advocate for the use of soy in feed, aquaculture and human consumption, promote the benefits of soy use through education and connect industry leaders through a robust membership program.

Our 15-member board of directors is comprised of four members from the American Soybean Association (ASA), four members from the United Soybean Board (USB), and seven members representing trade, allied industry, and state organizations.

New board members are seated annually. We are receiving funding from a variety of sources including soy producer checkoff dollars invested by the USB and various state soybean councils; cooperating industry; and the American Soybean Association's investment of cost-share funding provided by the United States Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Foreign Agriculture Service.

The United Soybean Board, created by the 1990 Farm Bill to manage and direct the National Soybean Checkoff, is dedicated to marketing and research for the soybean industry. USB is comprised of 73 volunteer soybean farmers representing the interests of fellow growers nationwide. Each board member is nominated by Qualified State Soybean Boards (QSSBs) and appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture.

Because of the limitations on administrative and salary costs established in the Act, USB outsources the majority of its program management responsibilities to USB's three primary contractors:

- SmithBucklin-St. Louis for domestic marketing, new uses, production research and Board initiative activities;
- Osborn & Barr Communications for communications/public relations activities and;
- U.S. Soybean Export Council (USSEC), Inc. for international marketing and global opportunities activities.

As one of these three primary contractors USSEC may also undertake initiative activities on behalf of USB. USB considers primary contractor staff (approximately 60 people) as core USB staff. These three primary contractors use a number of subcontractors and, together, these entities carry out approximately 450 projects each year for USB. USB also manages approximately 10 subcontractors.
